VOL. V. NO. 267. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5-6, 1899. PRICE, 5 CENTS

GEORGE LEE'S GOOD RACE.

It was a bright, clear afternoon Saturday and on this account, as well as the fact that a good card was offered, there was an exceptionally big crowd at Lakeside.

Naturally the track was muddy and sloppy, but despite this the racing was good and full of interest. During the day but two favorites survived, still the spectators seemed well satisfied on their return trip, for, on several different occasions they caught the ring out of line, the prices on Maud Wallace, 12 to 1, and George Lee, 4 to 1, for instance. These horses have shown recently to be in fine form and are also mudlarks of high degree. Close observers took liberal advantage of such prices.

The ring at Lakeside up to date is said to be some $30,000 loser, and if such poor judgment prevails in laying prices as has existed during the first week of the meeting it is safe to say that the ring will lose a fortune before the fifteen days are over.

Perhaps one of the most sensational races witnessed around Chicago this summer was won by George Lee in the last event. This mud-loving son of St. George—Levee snatched a purse out of the fire that looked, at the half mile post, to be barred to a crisp.

The race spoken of was at a mile, and for some unknown reason George Lee in the opening betting was quoted at 5 to 1, but before post time he was backed down a point.

Winkfield was on George Lee and although he was asleep at the post and foolishly took the inside all the way, luck was with him. Lee was never a fast beginner and being near the inside at the start he was badly interfered with on the first turn, being run into a pocket and having to pull up. At the three-quarter pole he was last and at the half-mile ground he was last but two. Then he began to move up, and by a streak of good luck managed to get through on the far turn, but the leaders were so far in front of him then that it seemed impossible for him to catch them. The gelding, however, proved game and able to stand punishment, and at the sixteenth post he was second and within two lengths of Pat Garrett, the leader. From there home his backers counted the strides and measured the distance from the leader to the wire, for as fast as Lee was coming it was evident that if the finishing point was far enough away he was sure to beat Pat Garrett. At the jockey board George Lee was lapped on Pat Garrett, and then with one grand effort he flashed by him like a shot, and amid great excitement the judges hung out number one.

O'Connell made May Beach and also a lot of selling platers like Duty, Little Reggie and Loyal Prince look cheaper than they really are by winning the third race in a common canter. Mitchell rode May Beach and she had five pounds less weight than she had when she last performed, but the handsome daughter of Bobby Beach—Faithless plainly showed that she did not like mud and finished far back with a common lot of selling platers. O'Connell was a 1 to 2 chance and that was a royal price.

That Maud Wallace likes to go a route and also revels in the mud was demonstrated in the fourth race, which was at a mile and a sixteenth. This filly rated in behind old Hugh Penny to the head of the stretch, and then galloped over the ancient son of Luke Blackburn—Maud Ward at her leisure, winning as she pleased.

Uarda, after a long let-up, came out fresh and good in the initial mile and a sixteenth dash, and at 7 to 1 staggered home in front of Donna Rita and Elidad. The latter was practically left at the post and ran a grand race.

Emma M. was a wild horse in the second race and with 115 pounds on she surprised every one by beating Avenstoke and Lady Curzon. This filly has been raced most inconsistently and the officials could well afford to interview her owner. From him there is a bare possibility that something might be learned.

"Dick" Rome was presented with Isaby by "Bob" Tucker during the summer and in the fifth race Rome got his winter money as Isaby beat a bad lot like breaking sticks. To show that Rome has the right system "he is all out" and did not have a dollar to bet but his horse was sent after the purse just the same.

An odd thing happened in the third race. O'Connell, the 1 to 2 favorite, broke some of his trappings at the post and was cantered back to the paddock to have them fixed. Judge Hamilton allowed the horse to stay in the paddock over ten minutes without a judicial eye being on him. This may have been all right but nevertheless it set the scandal-monger to going, but after O'Connell won so easily there was nothing doing in the gossip line.

E. Scherrer, who rode Little Reggie in the O'Connell race, is a promising lightweight. Little Reggie was a 100 to 1 chance but was well backed to show, and Scherrer landed her in third place in a clever way.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

W. J. Speirs will try his fortune on the coast again the coming winter. Tuesday he shipped Faunette and the others of his string to Frisco. He took with him two two-year-olds belonging to J. V. Carter. One is a full brother to Dr. Sharp and the other a sister to the good race mare, Weolia. J. Carter, the diminutive jockey and a promising lightweight, accompanied Mr. Speirs. Mr. Carter has turned out for the winter his good three-year-old, Gness Me, and the others of his string, with the exception of two which he has at Newport, and he, too, will go to the coast after the present meeting at the Campbell county track.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

At the conclusion of the racing at Oakland, Friday, the judges and stewards suspended jockey J. Ward and the horses composing Barney Schreiber's stable, pending the investigation of the inconsistent running of Forte and Aluminum. No suspicion attaches to Mr. Schreiber in the premises, as he is in New York for one thing, and his long and honorable career as a turfman has put him above suspicion for another. As to Forte it might be said that he never was a consistent horse in any owners' hands. Aluminum's bad race was in the mud and his win was over a fast, dry track.

The California State Board of Agriculture has decided to provide as a substitute for the present Futurity stakes, annually run at Sacramento, a great stallion nomination stake, stallions to be nominated before January 1, 1900, the produce of mares bred in 1899, colts to be named January 1, 1901, and to be run at the State Fair in 1902. This is expected to be the richest stake ever run in California, and the stakes and added money are expected to amount to a great many thousands of dollars.

The Grand Prix de Paris for 1901 has obtained 519 entries, as compared with 491 for 1900, and 459 for this year's race. The Grand Prix deserves its remarkable success, for it is both the richest and the cheapest stake in Europe. There is $40,000 of added money, and an owner can "get out" for $20, by declaring forfeit about five weeks before the race is run. The added money, moreover, is given without any deductions, the sweepstakes going to the winner.

Winner—B. g. by St. Andrew—Otyanna.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next two were driving. St. Casimir liked the track and was going away at the finish. Champion Rose outgamed Druidess and showed marked improvement. The latter is a faint-hearted filly. Waterwick seemingly could not extend himself in the going. Giro ran a fair race.

Winner—Ch. c. by Onondaga—Elsinore.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Opponent loafed along in a good position until nearing the three-quarters and then came on like a wild horse. Morinel was run into exhaustion in the first seven furlongs. The same can be said of Lothian. G. B. Morris was a false alarm and short on speed.

Overweights—Morinel, 3 pounds; Tenricka, 4.

Opponent, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Morinel, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Lothian, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. G. B. Morris, place, evens; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by St. Carlo—Anarchy.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Socialist was well ridden, liked the track, ran gamely and was far the best. He is by no means consistent. Castake finished resolutely. Wyoming quit badly in the homestretch and ran below his capacity. Silver Maid showed early speed, but weakened in the closing quarter. Guilder ran a bad race.

Scratched—15460 Silver State, 101.

Socialist, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Castake, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Wyoming, show, out.

Time, 25, 51, 1:17, 1:43.

Winner—Br. c. by Pirate of Penzance—Miss Thomas.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third easily. Malay was rated along with good judgment to the home stretch and then came on and won like a good colt. Dr. Sheppard wore Rosormonde down in the first six furlongs but the effort tired him so that he could not stall off Malay. Rosinante ran so much below her Oakland form that her owner was called on for an explanation and her running is under investigation.

Scratched—15428 Judge Wofford, 80.

Malay, place, 7 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Dr. Sheppard, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Rosormonde, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Rosinante, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The fine list of rich stakes offered by the California Jockey Club closes Monday, and owners who design taking part in the California winter campaign will be remiss in taking care of their own personal interests if they fail to mail their entries before the time of closing. Business of all kinds is booming at San Francisco and the racetracks there are certain to reap their due share of this abounding prosperity. In that genial climate winter is about equivalent to early summer here, and the racing is carried on amid the most pleasant surroundings conceivable. With many valuable stakes and hundreds of fat purses to be awarded before the horses head this way next spring owners of fairly good horses have every possible inducement to make liberal entries in the events displayed in the advertising columns of DAILY RACING FORM.

ary 5, 1900. The two volumes of the Annual special term books for sale on order, however.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1899 is billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the Winner—B. f. by Strathmore—Zublan.

Off at the first break to a good start for all but Elidad. The first three were driving and staggering. Uarda, considering it was her first start in a long while, ran an extraordinarily game race. The filly got a flying start, showed all of her usual speed and Winkfield rode her skilfully. She is strictly a front runner and the boy got her in the lead as soon as possible. Through the stretch Uarda was extremely weary and just did manage to stagger in. Donna Rita was at altogether too short a price. She ran her race and is gradually improving. With an equal break Elidad would have been hard to beat, and, in fact, it would be safe to say that he would have won. He was practically left, then made up a great space of ground, and at the end was fast catching the leaders. Prestar showed plenty of speed, but lacked the endurance. When he stopped he stopped badly. Rollins ran a fairly good race. The others are of no account.

Overweights—Ruskin, 3 pounds; Pinar del Rio, 3.
Uarda, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Donna Rita, place, out. Elidad, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Br. f. by The Hero—Big Ciss.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving to the limit; second, third and fourth also driving. Emma M. improved suddenly. She showed a lot of speed. Conley took the shortest route with her and by swinging wide on the stretch turn in with Avenstoke into a pocket. Avenstoke was the best but with the bad ride he got it was hardly possible for him to win. In the last twenty yards Winkfield had to pull the colt up to prevent him from cutting down Emma M. It was only Winkfield's "fat-headedness" that landed him in such a bad position through the stretch. Lady Curzon seemingly could not handle weight. Ailanto showed a lot of speed but seemed to run out at the head of the stretch. Either the colt bolted or else Hinkley showed bad judgment in taking him so wide. The race was between the first four all the way.
Scratched—15463 Olekma, 115; 15440 O'Dea, 105; 15488 Dr. Cave, 108; 15348 Ritchie, 103; (15400) Oconno, 115.
Emma M., place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Avenstoke, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Lady Curzon, show, 2 to 5. Ailanto, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. g. by Harry O'Fallon—May Kennedy.
Post 17 minutes. Start fair. Won eased up; second and third were driving. O'Connell was best and had an easy time of it. He got away in front and galloped under a double pull all the way. He is in his best form now and is perhaps the best horse at the track at three-quarters of a mile. Duty over raced here f. So did Little Reggie, who was heavily backed to show. The latter was off none too well, and everything considered ran an extra good race. Loyal Prince dropped far out of it early and then came again at the end with a terrific rush. Goebel tired badly in the stretch. May Beach showed speed for about a half mile and then retired. She has had a lot of it lately and is perhaps stale. The filly never was much in the mud. Free Lady got shut off sharply at the start and this ruined whatever chance she had. Wiggins was practically left at the post.
Overweights—Free Lady, 3 pounds.
O'Connell, place, out; show, out. Duty, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Little Reggie, show, 10 to 1. May Beach, place, 7 to 10; show, 3 to 10.

Winner—Ch. f. by Regalis—Miss Birdie.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second hand ridden; third and fourth were driving to the limit. Maud Wallace ran a fine race and it was strictly in line with her form. Considering her recent good performance her price was entirely too long. Volandies got away all tangled up and never really got in his stride until the stretch was reached. Then he finished fast. He is a good horse in the mud. Hugh Penny had speed galore and as far as he went did well. The route was too far for him and at the end he quit badly. Great Bend's race will hardly do. He did not show his usual amount of speed and labored all the way. Do not count this performance for him in form calculations. John Baker is not himself. Ed Tipton is not a good mud horse.
Maud Wallace, place, 4 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Volandies, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Hugh Penny, show, 2 to 5. Great Bend, place, 2 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Ch. c. by Strathmore—Belle of the Highlands.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won eased up. There was plenty of action behind the winner. Isabey was the best of the field, and in the g low his bad legs did not hurt him and he consequently won as he pleased. Rigby was easing Isabey up from the eighth post home. False Lead was the best of the others. He had the benefit of a good ride. Lillian Reed had a lot of bad luck early, but finished stoutly. Hosi came from a long way back in the stretch. Loiterer and Lady Osborne showed speed. They both showed their yellow streak, too, when the pinch came. Morea can do better. Libbie had bad racing luck.

Scratched—15490 Judge Steadman, 105.
Overweights—The Plutoct, 2 pounds.
Isabey, place, 1 to 2; show, out. False Lead, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Lillian Reed, show, evens.

Winner—Br. g. by St. George—Levee.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a terrific drive; second and third were driving also. George Lee's win was a sensational one. He is a slow beginner and was badly interfered with often. He was lucky, however, in getting through on the inside on the far turn and from the three-eighths post home made up much ground. In the mud he is almost a stake horse over a distance of ground. Pat Garrett had no excuses and ran his race. The same can be said of Astor, who lost a lot of ground on the stretch turn. Tobe Paine was a false favorite and finished about where he belonged. Wilson and Tillie W. both ran bad races.
